

Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, October 22, 1859.
THE LATE LIST.—The list of unclaimed funds left in the city post office will be published in the next issue.

RESCUE OF COOPER.—There were fifteen passengers before the Rescuer yesterday, eight of whom went to the ship yard.

ONE AGAIN.——Recorder East has no far to travel to bring his recent illness to the able to attend to the care of his wife.

DRUGGISTS' CONVENTION.—Michael Gosselin, charged with the murder of a citizen from the lower wharf, was discharged from custody yesterday by order of Justice McCormick.

THE FRIENDS OF THE HOSPITAL.—We are requested to inform our readers that the Memphis Hospital will be held this morning on South Court street, at the office of Dr. Martin, physician to the hospital.

NEW ENTRANCE.—Master J. S. Mitchell & Co., at 26 Main street, have just received large and handsome additions to their supplies of family groceries, to which we invite the attention of all domestic persons.

DRAPERY.—We are under continued and unanimous gratification to find that our valuable tailors, James Stewart, and his son, George, and his wife and attendants, were Mr. Morris, for the past two weeks.

PENN'S COTTON.—Mr. Graham, the well known cotton factor, yesterday disposed of the last of his cotton at $1.00 per bushel.

HOSPITAL TRUSTEES.—A meeting of the board of trustees of the Memphis Hospital will be held this evening at 7 P.M. in the hall of the hospital, on Court street.

COURTIAL COURT.—In this trial yesterday, the name of J. Washington Williams and Wm. L. Ross, charged with shooting down Major Price, was called out.

MATRIMONIAL.—We publish in our hymnals this evening the marriage of Mr. W. H. Mathews and Mrs. Anna K. Jones, and their first-born child, a son, was born yesterday.

EP' LOGIUS.—Blank, check, receipt and money orders are issued by Messrs. Kirk & Williams at a small profit over cost. Business men will find it to their interest to patronize them in Walker's building, 10 Main street, and for very cheap, as we are enabled to secure all commodities.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.—We publish in our hymnals this evening the names of Mr. McWhorter, and Mr. W. L. Ross, who had been called out to the service of the State.

LAURENCE'S BLACKING.—We yesterday saw the name of this highly touted, and are compelled to say that it gives a superior tint, to the blacking we have ever seen. It is the invention of an enterprising manufacturer, and is sold at $1.00 per doz. and change. See advertisement.
